COMMUNICATION WORKSHOP for Finance Colleagues

10th, 11th and 12th June
4:00 pm to 5:30 pm on all days
Medium: Zoom

At Pause Play , we have designed an experiential Communication workshop, especially for our Finance colleagues.

Over 16 years, we have gathered some insights about their needs and areas to develop.

We believe that they can shine bright in front of their CFO's and other senior stakeholders if they are provided a nudge and rehearsal to:

- Present facts and numbers with a tinge of creativity, story, and metaphors
- Share facts in such a way that it facilitates decision making
- Be present to the need of their stakeholders and avoid long details
- Know the objective/ purpose of their audience and tweak messages accordingly.

We will create a virtual stage for the finance experts to rehearse real business communication and offer them insightful feedback.

We will use theatre-based tools and techniques to create meaningful experiences. We promise this is special gift for them. Who do you think will value this ?

Please nominate them.
